

HEYWOOD DISTRIBUTION PARK COMMUNITY BURSARY SCHEME

The Heywood Distribution Park Bursary Scheme has been set up to support small community groups and charities throughout Heywood.

Our aim is to support vital community work across all age groups and backgrounds.

To qualify for the bursary you must be based within Heywood and be a community based charity, or not for profit organisation. Groups such as sports teams, nurseries and voluntary support groups are eligible. The project must also fit around four themes:

Arts and Culture – the project will encourage art and culture related activities

Education and Skills – provide an opportunity to educate the community/group or demonstrate the development of new skills

Health and Wellbeing – increase the health and wellbeing of the community or group

Sustainability and Environment – projects will offer sustainable and/or environmental benefits to the community or group

For copies of the application form and for any additional information about the bursary scheme, please go to: www.heywooddistributionpark.com
