SEGRO

Wapping

Central to city life

Positioned in Zone 2, with unparalleled proximity to central London, SEGRO Park Wapping is a new development arriving in Q1 2027.

This is a rare and exceptional opportunity to position your business at a centrally located new ultra-urban industrial and logistics hub in London.

With seven best-in-class warehouse units, the space is designed to help support your supply chain and last-mile logistics operations, serving both customers and communities in the heart of the city.

Last-mile industrial space

With varying sizes across the units, all seven are built to the highest industrial standard—adaptable to your specific operation.

Incorporating brickwork traditional to the area, the development blends seamlessly with the surrounding landscape.
